

Bowlers Enthusiastic Over First Annual Tenpin Tournament

WITH PALACE BOWLERS

BY R. N. (JAKE) ROWSEY

Bowling, here's another chance in tournament bowling.

The Palace Duckpin Tournament will open the week of March 17.

There will be three classes, classes A, B and C, just the same as the tenpin tournaments are conducted.

This tournament will be the first of its kind ever attempted in this city.

Class A means an average of 98 or better; class B means an average of 90 or better; class C means an average of 85 or better. The tournament is open to any bowler in the city. No bowler can enter in more than one class. For instance, if a bowler enters in class A, he has to roll in all three class A events; that is, if he has entered the singles and doubles.

Teams will consist of three men, two men and individuals.

Prizes will be given in all these events, and also the all-event winner will receive a handsome prize.

Entrance fee will be $1 for each man for each event, three-men team, $3; two-men team, $2; individuals, $1.

All games will be rolled on the Palace Alleys, mostly at night.

Prizes will be made known on the opening night of the tournament, and a list will be posted on blackboards, where every bowler can see just what he will win if he happens to be one of the lucky ones.

Four line must be observed in all events. All games will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock each night. Bowlers are not required to be a member of an association, but the tournament is open to any bowler who rolls either duck or tenpins.

Duckpins seems to be one of the popular games around the alleys, while the tenpin bowlers are also busy knocking the big maples all over the alleys. Chances are bright for a successful tournament, as duckpins are holding the fort around most of the alleys.

Don't hesitate in sending in your entries as you may win a prize. You can never tell who is the winner until the series is over. Here's where you can test your averages.

Entry blanks can be had at the Palace Alleys, March 7. Entries close March 12. Tournament opens March 17. For further information see Manager R. N. Rowsey or C. N. Cosby, of Palace Alleys.

convinced that the teams from that city will finish well to the front.

Two Portpaw Teams.

One of the attractions of the tournament, an attraction, by the way, never offered on any alley anywhere—will be two five-man teams, one from Richmond, the other from Petersburg, composed of left-handed bowlers. Stranger still is the announcement that these men have not been picked, but are actually new members of organizations. The schedule of games will be so arranged that these two teams will compete against each other on the same night.

Local merchants have taken a lively interest and are contributing valuable prizes. It is the hope of the association that every man competing will be awarded a prize of some kind. Entries close on Thursday night at 8 o'clock, so that it is imperative for prospective entries to send in their names at once.

The lineup of the two portpaw aggregations follows: Richmond—Billey, Goetz, Burnett, Joyce, Sweeney and Edelblut. Petersburg—Lanier, Moore,

Ennis and Gill.

Zbyszko Defeats Samson.

New York, March 1.—Stanislaus

Zbyszko, the Polish champion heavyweight wrestler, defeated Paul Samson, the German champion, in a catch-as-catch-as-can bout, limited to forty minutes, at the New York Athletic Club tonight. Zbyszko forced Samson to quit in thirty-one minutes and fifty-eight seconds with a toe hold. Zbyszko was nearly all the time on the aggressive, but neither wrestler gained a fall, and the match went to the Polish champion on points.

Naval Academy Five Wins.

Annapolis, Md., March 1.—The Navy Academy men defeated the representatives of the University of Pennsylvania here this afternoon by fourteen points to five. The Mississippi secured four falls and a decision, while the Quakers had to be contented with one fall and one decision.

Naplander Stricken Ill.

Denver, Col., March 1.—Buddy Ryan, centender of the Cleveland American League team, was stricken suddenly last night within an hour of the time he was to leave for Pensacola, Fla., to join the team in spring practice, and today the master of the Cleveland team was at St. Joseph's Hospital. His condition is critical.

Exclusive announcement in The Times-Dispatch that Richmond had required the next inter-city bowling tournament, in which Baltimore and Washington will compete, has created new interest in the local tourney. Men who had forgotten that alleys existed have come to the front and have signed applications. Petersburg will come over on March 15 and attempt to take bowling honors away from Richmond. The Goetz association, composed of some of the most progressive young men on the Appomattox, are convinced that the teams from that city will finish well to the front.
